Dear Provider:

To all child day care providers impacted by Superstorm Sandy, the Division of Child Care Services staff send our wishes that you stayed safe and lost little. To those providers who were not so fortunate, we hope that you are getting the help you need and starting to recover. With that in mind, we are sending you this letter, packed with resource information, to make sure you are aware of what help and support is available to you in your area of the state.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is offering disaster assistance that may cover damages that your insurance doesn’t. That is why individuals affected by Superstorm Sandy are urged by FEMA to apply for assistance even if you have insurance. The deadline for individual claims is December 31, 2012.

What information do you need to apply for FEMA?

How to Apply for FEMA Assistance (Individuals)

You can apply for FEMA assistance by registering online at www.DisasterAssistance.gov, or by tablet or smartphone at m.fema.gov. Register by phone by calling 800-621-FEMA (3362). If you have a speech disability or hearing impairment and use a TTY, call 800-462-7585 directly; if you use 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS), call 800-621-3362. Again, The DEADLINE to file an individual FEMA claim is December 31, 2012. You can also check the status of your application at the web link above.
You can also file for FEMA assistance at any of the DISASTER RECOVERY CENTERS (DRC). For information about the location of DRC’s go to http://www.fema.gov/disaster-recovery-centers or call 1 800-621-3362.

What to Expect after You Have Filed with FEMA
After you file for assistance, you are issued an identification number. Each accepted claim is assigned to a FEMA Public Assistance Coordinator, who is responsible for setting up a “kick-off” meeting with each applicant. At the Kick-off, more detailed information is gathered about the damages and the plan to repair the damages.

Important Information

- There is never a fee to apply for FEMA disaster assistance or to receive it.
- There is never a fee for FEMA or U.S. Small Business Administration property damage inspections.
- Please be aware: Government workers will never ask for a fee or payment. They wear a photo ID. Watch out for middlemen who promise you will receive money, especially if they ask for an up-front payment.

One of the dire consequences of any disaster for many people is the loss of important documents. Often, such documents are needed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and state emergency services in order to process assistance applications for those who suffered losses or damage to their homes and belongings.

For copies of your utility bills, bank records, insurance policies, mortgage payments and the like, call the appropriate firm and speak to a customer-service representative.

If papers are lost - like birth certificates, Social Security cards, drivers' licenses, tax records and so on - you can receive replacements by contacting the following:

Information about Disaster Loans through the Small Business Administration

SBA provides low interest disaster loans to homeowners, renters, businesses of all sizes and private, nonprofit organizations to repair or replace real estate, personal property, machinery & equipment, inventory and business assets that have been damaged or destroyed in a declared disaster. For more information: Visit SBA.gov - U.S Small Business Administration or contact the SBA Customer Service Center toll-free at 1-800-659-2955.

Frequently asked questions about SBA:

Is disaster assistance still available if I have insurance?
The SBA loans may cover uninsured or under-insured losses. SBA is the federal government’s primary source of money for the long-term rebuilding of disaster-damaged private property. SBA helps homeowners, renters, businesses of all sizes, and private nonprofit organizations fund repairs or rebuilding efforts and covers the cost of replacing lost or disaster-damaged personal property. These disaster loans cover losses not fully compensated by insurance or other recoveries and do not duplicate benefits of other agencies or organizations.

How do I apply for a SBA loan?
The SBA application process:

- You may apply in person at any Disaster Recovery Center and receive personal, one-on-one help from an SBA representative.
- You may apply online using SBA’s Electronic Loan Application at: https://disasterloan.sba.gov/ela
- You may also complete a paper application and mail it to SBA. Discuss the completed application packet with an SBA representative and where to submit the application.

What are the application steps for SBA loans?
If you are applying for assistance for a Presidential disaster declaration, homeowners and renters must register with the Federal Emergency Management Agency to obtain a FEMA Registration ID Number by calling 1-800-621-3362. The speech or hearing impaired may call (TTY) 1-800-462-7585. Review SBA’s disaster assistance FAQ found at http://www.sba.gov/content/fact-sheet-businesses-all-sizes.

How long does it take to find out if I am approved for a SBA Loan?
The SBA tries to make a decision within 14-21 days. Make sure the application is complete. Missing information is a major cause of delays.

What if I am not approved or only partially approved for an SBA loan?
You may still be eligible for FEMA dollars if you are not approved for an SBA loan. You can contact FEMA at (800) 621-3362. Persons with speech or hearing disabilities may call TTY (800) 462-7585.

Should I wait for my insurance settlement before I file my loan application?
No. Don’t miss the filing deadline by waiting for an insurance settlement.

What does a physical disaster loan pay for that could help my child care program?
Some examples include: Real property, machinery, equipment, fixtures, inventory, and leasing improvements. SBA loans will cover uninsured physical damage. If your property was insured but you are required to apply insurance proceeds to an outstanding mortgage on the damaged property, you can include the amount applied in your disaster loan application.
